Rdr: In the Gospel, O Theophilus, I was concerned with everything Jesus did and taught from the beginning, until the day he was taken up, after giving commandments through the Holy Spirit to the apostles he had chosen. To them also he showed Himself alive after His passion by many proofs, appearing to them during forty days and speaking about God's kingdom. And while eating with them, He told them not to leave Jerusalem, but to wait for the Father's promise, "of which you have heard," He said, "By my mouth. For while John baptized with water, you shall be baptized in the Holy Spirit within a few days." Now, those gathered there questioned Him, asking, "Lord, is it now that you will restore the kingdom to Israel?" But He answered them, "It is not for you to know the times or the proper moments the Father has set by His own authority. But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you, and you shall be witnesses to me in Jerusalem, and in Judea and Samaria, and even to the very ends of the earth."
Pr: Peace be unto you, reader. Wisdom!

Pr: Wisdom!

Rdr: The reading is from the Epistle of the Holy Apostle Paul to the Ephesians. (Eph 5:20-33)

Pr: Let us attend!

Rdr: Brethren: Give thanks always and for everything in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to God the Father. Be subject to one another out of reverence for Christ. Wives be subject to your husbands, as to the Lord. For the husband is the head of the wife as Christ is the head of the church, His body, and is Himself its Savior. As the church is subject to Christ, so let wives also be subject in everything to their husbands. Husbands, love your wives, as Christ loved the church and gave Himself up for her, that He might sanctify her, having cleansed her by the washing of water with the word, that the church might be presented before Him in splendor, without spot or wrinkle or any such thing, that she might be holy and without blemish. Even so, husbands should love their wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself. For no man ever hates his own flesh, but nourishes and cherishes it, as Christ does the church, because we are members of His body. 'For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one.' This is a great mystery, and I take it to mean Christ and the church, however, let each one of you love his wife as himself and let the wife see that she respects her husband.

Pr: Peace be unto you, reader. Wisdom!

Rdr: And to your spirit, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

Rdr: The prokeimenon is in the 3rd Tone: The Lord is my Light and my Savior: Whom shall I fear?

Chr: Repeats prokeimenon.

Rdr: The Lord is the strength of my life: of whom then shall I be afraid?

Chr: Repeats prokeimenon.

Rdr: The Lord is my Light and my Savior

Chr: Finishes prokeimenon.

Pr: Wisdom!

Rdr: The Reading is from the Epistle of the Holy Apostle Paul to the Romans. (Romans 6:3-11)

Pr: Let us attend.

Rdr: Brethren: Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life. For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we shall certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. We know that our old self was crucified with him so that the sinful body might be destroyed, and we might no longer be enslaved to sin. For he who has died is freed from sin. But if we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him. For we know that Christ being raised from the dead will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. The death he died he died to sin, once for all, but the life he lives he lives to God. So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus.
